Marin Villages' volunteers, like Claire, are dedicated to helping seniors, like Ruth, stay independent in their own homes and communities throughout Tiburon.

When you open your heart as a volunteer, you are literally changing a senior's life for the better. And while the pay is, well, nonexistent, the job satisfaction is priceless.

VILLAGES

Our Paths - Our Choices

Marin Villages is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization empowering older adults to be active, connected and independent in the place they call home. Through our network of volunteers and local villages, Marin Villages is bringing to life a great idea: vibrant local communities of members and volunteers, enriching each other's lives, building new connections and making everyday life easier as we age.
