

Tiburon Peninsula Village

Empowering older adults to remain active, connected,
and independent in the place they call home

December 2022 Newsletter

Cherie Sorokin, editor

'Tis the season to be jolly! Not that we aren't always jolly as members, volunteers and donors of TPV, but in December let's excel at it. Goodness knows what will happen in 2023. Might as well take advantage of today and put a smile on our faces, enjoy more chocolate, sing familiar songs of the season, watch old movies, call old friends, and donate to causes we care about. Carpe Diem, if you remember your Latin, or even if you don't (it means Seize the Day!).

Speaking of causes you care about...

By now you should have received our fall fundraising letter in the mail from John Power, our executive director. Your support is important and appreciated! Contributions from our members, volunteers, and many individual donors in the community really help us keep this organization humming! Contributions of any size are welcome. You can mail a check or donate online at our website: <https://www.marinvillages.org/pages/10049-marin-villages---donate>

Hey, let's be careful out there!

- Wear a mask in indoor public spaces, or in a crowd
- Get vaccinated for both flu and COVID

- Keep your distance from others
- Try bumping elbows rather than greeting folks with a kiss on the cheek or a handshake
- Stay home if you don't feel well!

And please watch this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xdeSyT-XktA&list=PLEJhSDW-n-8nqgP2DkvOF872lgO_OLWhP&index=2

And be careful at home, too!

- No climbing on ladders to decorate Christmas trees or string holiday lights.
- Watch out for scams on the Internet or over the phone—'tis the season to be very skeptical! If in doubt don't click or respond, especially if the message is about "something wrong with your account or your computer," or "a need to send bail money to your grandson, granddaughter, son, long-lost cousin, etc." or "the IRS needing to hear from you immediately."

WELCOME, NEW MEMBERS AND VOLUNTEERS!

TPV November brunch at Salt & Pepper
