Gatian Cunningham and Cherie Sorokin, currently the only members of the TPV Steering Committee, are looking for one or two more TPV volunteers to help with planning events and periodically touching base with all TPV members and volunteers. Can you help? If so, please email Cherie at cheryl.sorokin@gmail.com, or Gatian at hearthcap@msn.com.

AND MORE...

Guess Who Is Modeling Marin Villages Logowear?

They are obviously better models than photographers, but it was fun for Diane Castro, BJ Slater, and Cherie Sorokin, to do a selfie in the office when they found, quite unexpectedly, that they were all wearing Marin Villages logo-wear on the same day! Diane wore the T-shirt, BJ the hooded long-sleeve shirt, and Cherie the sweatshirt. And no, it was not planned! Call the office if you want one of these items for yourself. We have them for sale at great prices! (415) 457-4633

Grant from Harbor Point Foundation

In January, TPV volunteer Matt Masson, and Cherie Sorokin, TPV volunteer and also Marin Villages President, were honored to attend a reception hosted by the Harbor Point Charitable Foundation. The Foundation awarded Marin Villages a grant of $5,000 to help Marin Villages provide more members with Emergency Kit Fanny Packs of the same type that TPV and the Tiburon Sunset Rotary delivered to TPV members last fall. Many thanks to Matt for bringing Marin Villages to the attention of the Harbor Point Foundation! And many thanks to the Harbor Point Foundation for their support! Pictured above are Cherie Sorokin, Robert Kaliski (Harbor Point Charitable Foundation Chairman) and Matt Masson.
